

Colonie TV Program Descriptions

Wednesday, May 24 to May 30, 2017

Albany County News with Paula Mahan	Mary Rozak discusses the Albany County Department of Recreation with Commissioner John D'Antonio. AND Mary Rozak and Gina Mintzer preview sporting events coming to the Albany area and the involvement of the Albany County Convention and Visitors
Getting to Know You with Joe Nash	Joe takes a look at solar energy with Gillian Black, Senior Associate at CSArch. AND Joe previews "Tafetta Memories," an upcoming musical at Cook Park, with director Michael Mensching and "Kaye Tafetta."
Health and Wellness with Paul Drezelo	Paul visits with Dr. Luke Pluto, MD, Sleep Clinic Director at Albany Medical Center on the topic of sleep medicine.
Inside Addiction with Dean Hale	64: In memory of Summer Smith...Dean Hale talks with Summer's mother, Kristin.
Mental Health Now	Matthew Shapiro visits with four guests to discuss children's mental health.
Misc.	Michael Lucas from the NYS Museum presents Slavery and Freedom in 19th
New York Cider with Sonya del Peral	Sonya del Peral and Ian Merwin, from Black Diamond Farm, take an interesting look at the cider making process and apple varieties.
Open Door to the Arts with Barbara Richer	Barbara previews the exciting 2017 season of Opera Saratoga with Lawrence Edelson, Artistic/General Director.
Story by Story with Joe and Kate	Kate Dudding and Joe Doolittle welcome Jeanine Laverty for stories and a preview of May storytelling events. AND Kate Dudding and Joe Doolittle share stories with Khalafalla Osman and preview June storytelling events.
Storytimes	Join the youth services staff each weekday at 9am and 7pm for stories, songs, fingerplays and fun. This program is for children of all ages.
Young at Heart with Tom Scarff	Tom Scarff visits with Father Peter Young recollecting his career in statewide housing and treatment services.